Defendant.	:

ORDER

Previously, on December 9, 2020, the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals issued an Order vacating and remanding Defendant Jaron Coleman's conviction and sentence to this Court for further proceedings. (Doc. 30; Doc. 33); United States v. Coleman, No. 19-15127 (11th Cir. Dec. 9, 2020). On January 8, 2021, Government filed a Status Response (Doc. 35), stating that Parties were negotiating at potentially resolving the matter. Government further noted that in the event the matter cannot reach a negotiated resolution, it planned to dismiss the current information and proceed with indictment of the matter. (Id.) Subsequently, on August 30, 2021, Government stated that Defendant decided not to enter a plea, so it planned to present the matter for indictment and move to dismiss the currently pending information. (Doc. 42). Since then, no further action has been taken by either Party. (See the docket).

Accordingly, Parties are ORDERED to confer, review the case, then notify the Court on whether and how this case will proceed (i.e., change of plea hearing or dismissal of information by the Government or other appropriate disposition) as well as how they believe the Court should proceed regarding any forthcoming proceedings within fourteen (14) days after entry of this Order.

SO ORDERED, this 30th day of January 2023.
